

Rachel Maunders

IAWA International Virtual Networking

Wednesday 16 September at 4.00pm BST

“A great opportunity to stay connected and support women in the aviation and aerospace industries.”

Join us for another IAWA virtual networking session helping to bring together and connect our members and supporters across the world!

The meeting will be hosted by Rachel Maunders, a qualified counsellor and coach with years of experience in mindset and resilience and we will be joined by our special guest speaker Maggie Sarfo, an author, speaker and mentor who will give a talk and workshop on:

‘Self Leadership with Emotional Intelligence
How to adapt for success in a changing world’

with networking opportunities to follow thereafter.

To book your place:

click IAWA.org or email by clicking info@iawa.org

Supported by:

AIRBUS

Maggie Sarfo is a passionate author, speaker and mentor for inspirational leaders and brings over 18 years' experience in leadership, business & personal growth and transformation to her audiences.

Her work with world class advisory firms like Gartner, WPP, GLG, Blake Morgan LLP and The Wellness Universe led to partnering with and over-delivering on numerous growth and people transformation programmes.

Majority of her clients become hugely successful in their roles or transition successfully.

Maggie also works with clients on purpose and mission development (personal & organisational).

She holds an MBA and a PGCert in People Development (CIPD).

Connect with Maggie: LinkedIn