

Candice received a Master in Sociology from Western Michigan University and utilized her academic training to develop, manage, and direct programs designed to serve the most vulnerable youth, involved in the Child Welfare, Juvenile Justice, and County Mental Health systems. After more than a decade of developing and directing intensive community based mental health services for Counties of Solano, Marin, and Napa; Candice returned to school to receive a Master of Social Work from University of Southern California and transitioned to providing medical social services for Lifelong Medical Care, Napa Valley Hospice, and Kaiser Permanente. Currently, Candice is the Chief Program Officer at A Home Within and oversees the strategic plan to advance the mission of A Home Within. Additionally, Candice operates a private practice concerned with compassionately discovering new possibilities and modalities to respond to psychosocial stress related to multiethnic cultural identity.
