

Leigh Bishop, JD

Leigh Bishop, JD leads the Babies and Toddlers Task Force in the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner in the City of NY. This task force works to support public health and safety for babies and toddlers and their families through investigations, multidisciplinary training and special initiatives. She has a Juris Doctor degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law and over 25 years of experience in law and nonprofit organizations. Before joining the NYC OCME, she was the President of Babies and Toddlers, Inc., a nonprofit organization that provides education, advocacy, and support for families and caregivers of young children. She spent more than two decades serving as an Assistant District Attorney in Queens County, New York where she ran the Child Fatality Unit and specialized in serious injury/homicide investigations and prosecutions involving babies and toddlers.
