

ABOUT

MARY KELLY PERSYN

Mary Kelly, who chairs APSAC's Amicus Committee, is a lawyer and children's rights advocate in San Francisco. Her work focuses on the impact of trauma and toxic stress on children and youth. She has counseled amicus briefs on these and related issues in federal and state courts, including the United States Supreme Court. She is an elected member of the American Law Institute and served on the Member Consultative Group for the Restatement of Children and the Law. Mary Kelly graduated from Columbia Law School as a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and from the University of Washington with an honors Ph.D. in English literature.