VIOLA VAUGHAN-EDEN

Viola Vaughan-Eden, PhD, MSW, MJ is Professor and PhD Program Director with the Ethelyn R. Strong School of Social Work at Norfolk State University in Southeastern Virginia. She is co-founder of The UP Institute, a think tank for upstream child abuse solutions. As a clinical and forensic social worker, she serves as a consultant and expert witness in child maltreatment cases – principally sexual abuse. Dr. Vaughan-Eden is President Emerita of the American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children, President Emerita of the National Partnership to End Interpersonal Violence, and Past-President of the National Organization of Forensic Social Work. Throughout her 30-year career she has conducted more than 2500 child abuse evaluations and provided expert testimony more than 700 times. She lectures nationally and internationally on child welfare to multidisciplinary groups of professionals. Dr. Vaughan-Eden serves on the editorial board of multiple peer-reviewed journals and is one of the editors-in chief of the six-volume 2022 NPEIV Handbook of Interpersonal Violence and Abuse Across the Lifespan. She is the recipient of several honors including the 2023 Outstanding Individual in Academia from the Congressional Research Institute for Social Work and Policy, the 2020 NOFSW Sol Gothard Lifetime Achievement Award, and the 2012 National Association of Social Workers-Virginia Chapter Lifetime Achievement Award. She was co-editor of the 2012 APSAC Practice Guidelines: Forensic Interviewing in Cases of Suspected Child Abuse and is the current committee chair.
