

IAWA Webinar

“Head versus Heart? Unleashing the Power Within”

Thursday 24 September at 16:00PM - 17:00PM (GMT+8)

“How can women in aviation be both strategic and successful when it comes to leading and managing their career and teams with great personality, empathy and trust?”

Join us for this IAWA Webinar to hear more from our two guest speakers. The talks will be followed by a Q&A session.

To book your place: click IAWA.org or drop an email by at info@iawa.org

Lee Yen Chin is a Client Partner with Korn Ferry Singapore. Her expertise spans across talent consulting, leadership development and executive coaching. She is versatile in working with a range of organizational groups and has extensive experience partnering with clients on large scale interventions. Lee Yen is a Registered Corporate Coach™ with the Worldwide Association of Business Coaches (WABC)®. As an Executive Coach, she balances a pragmatic and sensing approach in her coaching work, believing that every coaching conversation is a journey of self-discovery and progression.

At Korn Ferry, her expertise extends across talent consulting, leadership development and executive coaching. She has worked effectively with mid to senior leaders in areas including succession planning, talent management and development.

Lee Yen is also experienced and passionate about empowering women, advancing executive effectiveness, and building confidence in leadership transitions.

Murrae Ross-Eskell is Managing Director and Founder of Horizon Executive Search Int'l Ltd.

With over 18 years experience in executive search, Murrae is a specialist executive search consultant for the Aviation Industry. She has successfully placed people in executive and senior roles across the value chain, including aircraft leasing companies, aviation financiers, airlines, airports and service providers.

The types of roles Murrae has filled extends from C'Level, senior and middle management in varying functions, across the globe from Asia, North America, Europe and Africa, giving her a wealth of experience.

Murrae is a member of the International Society of Transport Aircraft Traders (ISTAT) and currently sits on the ISTAT Foundation Board as a trustee, along with being the Chair of the Education Committee which includes both the Internship Committee and ISTAT U.

Murrae is a member of the Aviation Club of the UK and is a Board Member of Advancing Women in Aviation Roundtable.

Supported by:

Connected. Bespoke. Trusted.