

Sarah Lee is the Chief Executive Officer of Think Dutchess, where she oversees the economic development programs for Dutchess County, New York. She has led the organization on impactful work, including recognition from the International Economic Development Council for their entrepreneurship program and marketing efforts.

Ms. Lee currently serves on the New York State Economic Development Council (NYSEDC) Board and is the Chairwoman of the organization's Annual Conference. Ms. Lee also serves on the Dutchess County Tourism Board, the Small Business Advisory Council for NY Congressman Antonio Delgado, the Women's Leadership Alliance Executive Committee of the Dutchess Regional Chamber of Commerce and is a Futures Fellow for the Hudson Valley Futures Summit at SUNY New Paltz. Ms. Lee holds a Master's in Public Administration from the Maxwell School at Syracuse University and is a graduate of SUNY Albany.