The "Stars" Came Out Last Night

If you missed the party last night, you missed seeing some of Hollywood's biggest stars, both past and present. We just don't see much of Mae West or Sonny Bono, but last night each made one of their rare appearances. Cher accompanied Sonny and seeing them together again brought a tear to the eyes of many. (Or were there other reasons for the laughter and tears!) Among those attending were GI Jane herself, Demi Moore; Shirley Maclaine, Mr. Rogers, Godzilla (yes, really!), and Lucy from the Peanuts gang. More on this star studded event in tomorrow's news, including the winners for the best costume.

PACRAO '99 in PORTLAND

The meeting in Portland will be November 7-10. Based at the recently refurbished Hilton Hotel, attendees will be centrally located to take advantage of the many sights and sounds of downtown Portland. Great dining, shopping, and a myriad of other adventures await those that will venture out from the conference hotel. The conference program will provide varied and interesting development opportunities that will excite and challenge. Please mark your calendar and include PACRAO in your budget planning.

PACRAO 1999 will be an experience to remember!

Draw Prizes

If you have not checked the Monday prize list in Hospitality be sure you do. There were more than 75 lucky winners yesterday, far too many to mention individually. With over 125 prizes donated there will be more lucky winners today. Drop your draw ticket by Hospitality early in the day to be eligible for both drawings.
